

Silloth Tennis Club

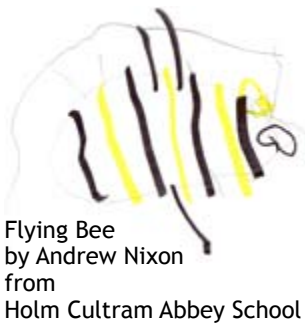

Report by: David Wise

Greg Ramsay's recent string of impressive results seem to have paid off after he was selected as number 1 seed for the County under ten team to play in Edinburgh in June.

Even though he is still officially under nine it just goes to show that his hard work over the winter period has paid off. Everyone at the club wishes him well.

Greg Ramsay added yet another notch to his belt with his second County title in two years by winning the county Mini Orange final to add to his Mini Red win in 2007. Held at Kendal Tennis Club, Greg was Silloths' only boy representative, he put in a series of fine performances to eventually overcome Ulverston's Joseph Wilkinson in the final. Fellow club members Amy Aird and Macy Baker also qualified and were both narrowly pipped in the semi finals of the plate event.

Silloth Bowling Club

Jimmy Lettice

This years prestigious Silloth Bowling Clubs' May Pairs competition was the closest for a long time.

Competitors came from all over Cumbria, all chasing the Trophy and Prize money. Playing through out the day the early favourites were the Silloth pairing of Ryan Orchard and Paul Wallace, closely followed by the young but highly talented pair of Adam Hocking and Lewis Parker. Hot on their heels were the hard to beat John Neal and his partner Sid Robertson plus J.J.

Finalists of May Pairs:
John Baird, Ian Gallagher, Paul Wallace and Ryan Orchard

Graham and his team mate Colin Irving.

The scorching heat and glaring sun seemed to get to a few of the older players as two by two they faded away leaving youngsters Adam Hocking and Lewis Parker losing out to the experienced

Adam Hocking unlucky losing semi-finalist pair of Ian Gallagher and John Baird by 5 shots.

The other semi-final produced a 'shot of the tournament' from Paul Wallace which resulting in his partner Ryan Orchard jumping on his back in delight.

The final was as expected a tight game played in the right spirit and a credit to all players with the eventual winners being Ian Gallagher and John Baird representing the Subscription Bowling Club.

This was a great day and advert for local bowls in Silloth. A big thank you must go to all who helped, especially the Ladies of Silloth Bowling Club and Stan Crellin who prepared and served the refreshments all day. Well done to you all.
