Crowds at Fantastic Fireworks

Report by: Chris Previtali

This year's Halloween Bonfire & Fireworks display organised by S.T.A.G. (Silloth Tourism Action Group) was held in much better weather than last year. Attendance was at least double and very good value for a £2 donation contributed towards the expenses of the night.

The bonfire was the largest ever thanks to DA Harrison and staff who supplied the material and undertook the erection. Mrs Cooper and pupils from Solway Community School also deserve thanks for once again making Guy Fawkes.

The Fancy Dress Competition was dropped this year as the entrants last year got very cold in the bad weather.

The firework display was again by Skyburst and the fairground entertainment and refreshment stalls organised by Fletchers Amusements who also supplied ground lighting.

Special thanks go to Mrs Barbara Holliday for allowing use of The Airfield, without whom the event could not take place, and to all those who attended to make a happy and successful night.

Don't Miss Santas Sleigh

Report by: Geoff Betsworth

A reminder from the Rotary Club of Silloth-on-Solway to make sure you tell the kids to keep an eye out for Santa Claus when he visits the town on Sunday 21st December.

He will be setting off from Skinburness at 3:30pm and will visit Skinburness Drive and then follow the traditional Carnival route through the town ending up in West Silloth.

He will be handing out gifts to the little ones and his team of helpers, resplendent in their new high-vis jackets, will be carrying large yellow buckets in which to drop any spare cash for Rotary charities.

First Responders Awarded £1,000 by Sellafield

To mark a year of safe working, employees from the Pile Fuel Storage Pond nominated the Silloth First Responders to receive £1,000 after team member, Martin Jackson, received life saving treatment from the First Responders after having a suspected stroke at home in Silloth.

The responders, made up of eight volunteers, were called out to 53-year-old Martin in September 2013 and found him in cardiac arrest. Volunteers Lorna Gilmour and Nicola Szandurski were first to arrive and began to administrate CPR whilst they awaited the ambulance to arrive.

Nicola said: "We arrived on the scene within three minutes and it was quite apparent that Martin was very ill. We then began CPR, attaching the defibrillator which allowed us to shock him twice before the ambulance arrived. Once the ambulance arrived we carried on working alongside the paramedics to keep the blood circulating through Martin's heart during his journey to hospital."

Martin was transferred to the local A&E department at Carlisle Hospital, where eventually the staff were able to stabilise his condition.

After recovering, Martin and his family were told by the doctors he wouldn't have survived had it not been for the help and quick intervention of the Silloth First Responders.

Martin said: "I don't remember anything about my collapse. I didn't have any symptoms and all I remember is waking up in intensive care. I was very ill at first but I'm so lucky to have survived and to be back at work and enjoying a normal life at home. I am so grateful to the first responders, without them, things could have been so very different."

Operating in Silloth and the surrounding villages, the Silloth First Responders respond to life threatening call outs 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, from the North West Ambulance Service. Since forming, the volunteers have answered over 2,000 calls.

Silloth First Responders Team Leader, Peter Gilmour said: "The donation from Sellafield Ltd means a great deal to us. It will help us keep up to date with training, buy replacements for our kits and training equipment.

For further details about joining a Community First Responder team in your local area or how to support a local group please visit the North West Ambulance Service Responder website www.nwas-responders.info.

Dog Walkers

The farming community in Cumbria have highlighted their concern regarding a disease called Neosporosis. The disease is caused by the parasite Neospora caninum and is thought to be responsible for the highest percentage of all cattle abortions reported in the UK. Once Neosporosis infection has occurred in a cattle herd it can persist within the herd due to the vertical transmission of the parasite between cows and calves.

Research suggest that Neospora eggs are produced by infected dogs and excreted in their faeces. Cattle will become infected if they eat food or drink water contaminated with Neospora eggs.

If you walk dogs in the countryside, please be aware of this and remove dog faeces as you would in Towns and Villages.

Miramar Lodge Visitors

Report by: Kevin Anderton

The Silloth on Solway Golf Club was the venue for a meeting of Miramar freemasons and their visitors from Australia.

On 31st October the worshipful master, Barry Lodge, together with other brethren and their wives were particularly pleased to welcome Margie West and her brother Andrew, the grand daughter and grandson of former Lodge member William Crichton (1894-1986) who lived at 59, Waver Street before emigrating to Australia after world war two. In 1930, William was the steward of the Golf Club and his wife Mary, looked after the catering.

The purpose of Margie and Andrew's visit was to present the lodge with a memorial water jug that had been presented to their grandfather whilst he was a member of the Miramar Lodge, so after coffee and biscuits at the Golf Club the party visited the Lodge building in Station Square where the presentation was made and the jug placed in the lodge display cabinet.

Festival & Event Funding

Allerdale Borough Council is committed to supporting the development of festivals and community based events in the borough. We have established a fund that seeks to support festivals and events through an application process where applicants can apply for either a grant or sponsorship depending on the nature of their event.

(29/11/2014): with market and town centre ski slope.

Rotary Club of Workington, Technology Tournament (14/03/2015).

Keswick Christmas Lights Switch On (21/11/2014): with all day Christmas food and gift fair and entertainment.

Kirkgate Arts, Puppet Animation (March 2015): The Festival is the UK's largest performing arts event for children. It offers children and their families opportunities to be transported to magical worlds of make-believe.

Cockermouth by Candlelight (08/12/2014): The event itself will start at 4pm when all participating shops in Cockermouth will light their Georgian-style lanterns (and the optional paper lanterns) outside their shops. This will provide a unity to the town for this magical evening. At 5pm, the lantern parade will start from the Kirkgate Centre. The children (accompanied by their families) will form a procession through Market Place, along Main Street, up Station Street, down Lowther Went, left along Main Street, finishing at Wordsworth House, where the lamp-lit National Trust property will serve spiced Georgian punch and volunteers will tell stories about local historical figures and ghosts. The procession will be led by Father Christmas and will be joined by various local choirs and brass bands playing festive Christmas carols.

The next funding panel will take place in May 2015 for all events that will be taking place before September. All funding has to be applied for by completing an application form which is available from our website <http://www.allerdale.gov.uk/leisure-and-culture/festivals-and-events/funding-your-festival-or-event.aspx> or can be collected from Allerdale House. Further details from Alexandra Bell 01900 702714.

Events we have just funded:

Caldbeck Festival (2nd-5th October): Bringing the community together to celebrate talent in the area. There will be music, story telling, arts and crafts throughout the village and a 'pop up bookstore' on the Saturday. The pub is providing traditional Cumbrian Fayre and there is even a dog handling exhibition provided by a local dog trainer.

CADAS Food Extraganza (21st November): A fundraising event that raises the profile of CADAS whilst showcasing the vast and various food available in Allerdale. To include cookery demonstrations from Peter Sidwell, Carvetii Tea and Coffee and advice on products from local traders.

Ewanrigg Local Trust, Mad Hatters Tea Party (04/04/15).
Cockermouth Georgian Fair (02/05/15): The Cockermouth Georgian Fair turns the clock back with a whole host of activities with an 18th century theme, with lots of people re-enacting the Georgian style.

Keswick Victorian Fayre (07/12/14): A great day out for all the family in Keswick Town centre from 11:30am onwards. With lots of decorated charity stalls and a host of street entertainment with the Christmas tree and shops festooned with colourful lights, and equally colourful local characters providing entertainment, it is an occasion not to be missed.

Short-listed for Quality Awards

Debbie and Glen are pleased to tell their customers that Solway Private Hire has been short listed in two categories in this years Professional Driver Magazines QSI (Quality Service Innovation) Awards.

The categories are Private Hire Company (1-50 cars) and Community Award.

Solway Private Hire are the only company in Cumbria to be short listed for these awards, it is an amazing achievement to even be accepted for these prestigious awards.

As a company they pride themselves in offering a friendly and reliable service to the community. They work in conjunction with Cumbria County Council, local doctors and schools; to name a few, James Rennie, Caldew Learning Centre, Newton Rigg and lots more.

Solway Private Hire offer a door to door service for those who want a safe ending to their night out, they help the elderly with their shopping and much more.

Debbie and Glen are proud that their staff are friendly reliable and always there to help. If there is a question being asked, they will do their best to answer.

They are so proud of their company and overwhelmed by the support of their customers. They know that without them they would not be in the running for such a fantastic award. Debbie and Glen would like to thank you all for your amazing support over the past five years and hopefully a lot more years to come.

Thomas Thanks You All

Thomas and the whole Timperon family would like to say thanks everyone that supported them in their fundraising efforts to build a Sensory Room for Thomas (the boy who can't speak).

Also, all the people that sponsored them for the sky dive, so many people have been very kind, it has made Thomas really happy. They would like to say thank you to Steven Slater and Peter Gilmore for letting them sell raffle tickets on the market at Silloth and for selling raffle tickets at Silloth Kite Festival. Also, a thank you to the Solway Buzz for publishing information about the appeal for Thomas, and also all the family members who have helped them out.

Sealy Beds very kindly donated a double bed, Carrs Mill donated a hamper and Jacksons of Longtown donated all their prizes and also everyone else that kindly donated prizes for the raffle.

They just wish Thomas could thank every one himself. Especially they would like to thank Clive Firth for been their trustee for the bank account.

Without Clive they say they would never have managed to raise the money, he pointed them in the right direction and showed the family the way forward, thank you Clive.

Open Door Group Shuts Down

As many of you will know the Silloth Open Door group has not been open for quite a long time this year due to a variety of reasons. The committee of the Silloth Open Door Group has recently had a meeting, and with regret has decided that it should close.

The Silloth Open Door Group however, would like to extend their grateful thanks to everyone who has supported them over the last eight years, and wishes you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Volunteers Wanted to Survey Listed Buildings in Allerdale

Volunteers are needed to help survey listed buildings in Allerdale. A new project looking at the threat to some of Allerdale's listed buildings is starting.

North of England Civic Trust, in partnership with Allerdale Borough Council, has been appointed by English Heritage to carry out one of nine test projects to survey Grade II listed buildings. The survey areas they are working on in West Cumbria will focus on the towns of Cockermouth, Maryport and Workington.

They will be working with local people to carry out the surveys of the outside of the buildings. This will involve training keen and interested local people in what to look for when assessing the overall condition of historic buildings. The surveys will only look at the external features of buildings and will not involve internal inspections.

The Civic Trust are currently recruiting volunteers for the project; so if you live within a reasonable distance of the project areas and would like to get out and about looking at historic buildings, please get in touch. Full training will be given and support provided throughout the project. The project will run from late November 2014 until February 2015.

For more information please email Rose Lord, Conversation Projects Officer; email: rose.lord@nect.org.uk or call 0191 232 9279.

2015 Silloth Vintage Rally

The next Silloth Vintage Rally will take place on Silloth Green on Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th June 2015, with a few new faces on the committee.

Our sincere thanks go to the previous committee members and volunteers, who have made this the popular, family friendly event it is today.

We look forward to seeing exhibitors, visitors and enthusiasts old and new, at the 2015 Vintage Rally.

Public Meeting Update

Silloth-on-Solway Town Council would like to thank everyone who attended the Public Meeting on 30th October.

The Council were pleased with the support shown by the local people who attended. The purpose of the meeting was to generate support and encourage volunteers to come forward to help with events on the Green, some of which were at risk of coming to an end.

A new committee was formed for the Silloth Vintage Rally prior to the meeting taking place but additional volunteers have also offered to help with the event. There were a number of people at the public meeting who will hopefully be getting together in the next few weeks, to discuss forming a new Carnival committee and start planning for next year's Carnival.

If anyone else would like to help at any of the events but couldn't get to the meeting, please get in touch. Contact anna.malina@silloth-on-solway.co.uk or ring 016973 31816.

New Abbey Sign

You may have noticed, by now, a new sign mounted at Swinsty cross roads in Abbeytown, depicting a relief carving of Holme Cultram Abbey.

This came about as an idea, hatched by Jack Frost, after Solway Woodcarvers acquired an amount of waste oak planks, left over from the rebuilding of the Abbey roof following the fire of 2006.

The planks were kindly machined with tongue and groove joints by Stanley Foster of Abbey Town then glued to make one solid piece. Jack and Michael have worked, spasmodically, on the project over the last few years and completed it this summer to coincide with the reopening of the Abbey.

Silloth Lifeboat Crew receiving a cheque for £2,500 from the Country & Western organisers at Stanwix Park

The Stanwix Park Country Music Weekend this November was a complete sell out, making it the best Festival ever! There was great live music, fabulous outfits, laughter and fun! The atmosphere was electric. The line dancing was crowded and the shoutouts very loud. The next festival on the 6th, 7th & 8th March 2015 is already shaping up to be a very busy one with limited availability already. The amount raised for charity at this festival was £3,353.86, including a £100 donation from Stanwix Park. This money will be presented to a charity to be chosen by the organisers at the next festival in Stanwix Park next March.

Carols on the Pitch

This Christmas Churches together in Silloth invite you to join them for Carols at Silloth Rugby Club. If it's a fine night we'll gather on the pitch and sing under the stars. Coffee and light refreshments to follow.

This is instead of a town carol service so everyone is invited to come along and have a rousing celebration at 6pm on Saturday 13th December at Silloth Rugby Club.

Cumbria & the Story of the First World War

By the end of November 1914, trenches had been established along the entire Western Front. Shortly after, the towns of Whitby, Scarborough and Hartlepool were bombarded by the German First High Sea fleet, proving that the British mainland was susceptible to attack. Across the whole of the country, people were coming to realise the gravity of the situation, including those in Cumbria.

You can find out more about how the First World War affected the lives of people living in Cumbria by visiting our website www.cumbria.gov.uk/ww1.

On the site, you'll find a timeline showing how the war unfolded day-by-day in Cumbria, and information about how life was changing on the home front.

You can also use our searchable database of local newspapers of the time to look up relatives who served in the war. Look out for special events going on in libraries across the whole of the four-year First World War commemoration period.

You can find out what's on by visiting cumbria.gov.uk/libraries, checking our Facebook pages or looking out for information in your local library.

Scouts, Cubs & Beavers

1st Silloth Scout Group has officially opened! Through September and October we have been running taster sessions and have had a phenomenal response.

The Beavers (aged 6-8) have been making everlasting notepads, building exploding volcanoes, and code breaking. Every week the Beavers play games with the aim of having lots of fun!

The Cubs (aged 8-10½) and Scouts (aged 10½-14) are currently meeting at the same time. They have been doing egg drops, making lava lamps, and planned a Halloween Extravaganza!

Overall, the group has around 40 young people attending the sessions each week. The sessions are being run by a strong group of local volunteers, but as always more help would be welcomed with open arms! Until we have more volunteers we cannot accept more children so we have started a waiting list, contact Alison Beard to go on the list.

Beavers making exploding volcanoes

The group is hoping to register in the very near future. Each young person will then officially become a member of the Scout Association and wear the uniform. Each Scout Group has a different coloured necker. Silloth's will be black and gold.

We are hoping to run a wide range of activities including camps and adventurous activities throughout the rest of the year and are keen for the group to play an active role in the community. If you have a project or opportunity that you think would be perfect, please get in touch.

There are opportunities to be involved as Leaders, Committee Members, or as Occasional Helpers. Whatever your skills, there will be a role perfect for you within the group.

For more information, please contact Alison on alison.beard@scouts.org.uk or call her on 01946 821811.

The Lowther at Mawbray

When the only pub in Mawbray closed nearly two years ago many people in the village thought it was gone forever. However, it has reopened as The Lowther after taking almost six months to refurbish.

Jay and Morven Anson, previously owned Café 14/16 on Eden Street, Silloth, but made the difficult decision to close a year after their first child was born. Robbie, now 9 and his sister Lucy, 6 both already attend nearby Holme St Cuthbert's school and were very much involved in the family decision to buy the business.

Morven says "The awful weather at the start of the year really held us up but we were lucky to have great local tradesman to help with the project. We continue to use as many local suppliers as possible for our food and drink" and Jay says the first few months have gone extremely well "We are delighted to have the support of the village and it's been great to see so many people who used to visit the café. The emphasis is definitely on fresh, home cooked food, real ale and great wines and I still bake bread daily".

Robbie and Lucy make the most of the playground right outside their door to meet their friends and have enjoyed walking home from school when the weather is good.

The pub is open seven nights a week and food is served Wednesday through to Sunday Lunch. The menu is seasonal, but includes many pub classics and the Christmas menu is now available.

Booking for larger parties is definitely advisable by calling 01900 881750.

Titillating, Tantalising Teasing Time for All

St Andrews Church is delighted to announce their hall stage now has new curtains thanks to a kind donation from the Silloth on Solway charity shop.

To celebrate this we are putting on a good old fashioned sing song, by having an "Old Time Music Hall". To dazzle and delight you, amaze and astound you, there will be a mystifying feat of awesome magnificence. A professional magician.

Old time attire is optional but most welcome.

It is being held on Saturday 31st January from 7pm to 9pm, and will be by ticket only. They will be on sale after Christmas.

A good old fashioned titillating, rousing musical extravaganza for all and everybody is welcome.

Pensioners Coffee Morning

Report by: Pat Froggatt

Our coffee morning was held on the 1st November and we were pleased to see so many of both residents and visitors attending. The hall was soon filled up and everyone was determined to have a good time. We were pleased to welcome Eve with her display of clothes which she described and exhibited during the morning. The cake stall was also as popular as ever with a variety of cakes for sale.

Tea and coffee was served by the committee members, and scones, jam, mince pies and rum butter was available on the tables for all to enjoy.

Tickets for the Christmas Party were again available to purchase, and for those not buying at this time they would be available at SOSCS shop after today.

The raffle was also well supported and the following were the lucky winners:

Jean Clifford, Sheila Nicholl, Eve Hardman, Betty Johnston, Ivy Mattinson, Pat Bell, Pat Froggatt and Mary

Eccles.

As this was the last coffee morning of the year we should like to thank all those who support us during the year. The Committee really appreciate your attendance.

Calling all Crafters

On May 16th 2015 a new event will take place: Silloth-A Craft Trail.

This is an event to promote crafts, the diversity of skills of local people, and to raise awareness of all the facilities Silloth has to offer.

If you are interested in sitting and demonstrating your crafting skills, or if you have a venue you can offer, please contact Anna Malina on anna.malina@silloth-on-solway.co.uk or 016973 31816.

Silloth Santa Dash

The annual Silloth Santa Dash was held on Sunday 12th October. It was well attended, it started at the Discovery Centre following the carnival parade route. We ended up at the Rugby Club where there was entertainment and food. We raised £600 towards the lights. We would like to thank everyone who attended the event, also everyone who donated prizes for the raffle and a special thank you to Thomas who brought his teacups for the kids and free candyfloss.

Harlequin Choir Concert

The Harlequin Choir returns to Silloth again for their ever popular concert of Christmas songs and carols on Friday 5th December 2014.

The concert is in aid of the Silloth Fundraising

Branch of the RNLI and will be held in Christ Church Hall, Solway Street, Silloth commencing at 7pm. This year there are many new additions to the choir's repertoire.

There will be a Christmas themed room raffle and RNLI Christmas cards and 2015 calendars will be on sale.

Entrance is £4 per adult with seasonal light refreshments provided. We look forward to seeing you there.

Rotary Dialect Competition

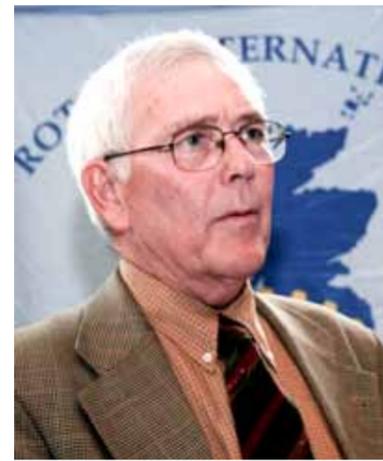

Report by: Geoff Betsworth

On Saturday 11th October, at the Golf Hotel, the Rotary Club of Silloth-on-Solway held the Cumbrian Dialect Competition.

The three noteworthy judges this year were Lakeland Dialect Society Journal editor Louise Green, Silloth Mayor Tony Markley and Silloth Rotary Club president John Cook, Master of Ceremonies for the afternoon was Tim Barker.

After hearing the contestants perform their pieces to a capacity audience, the judges went into hiding to deliberate on the high quality of the entrants. The rest of the assembled throng were served non-alcoholic refreshments courtesy of the Rotary Club. Upon their return to the room, the judges declared their decisions, and trophies were awarded to the winners in each of the categories.

The Overall Winner of

the audience that older could well mean dafter! Last but not least was the Under 16 category which on this occasion was awarded to former Biggest Liar in the World, John Graham for his "A Day in the Life of a Farmer". Head judge Louise Green explained, that since there appeared to be nobody of that age group among the competitors, the prize this year would go to the best Under 16 Stone entry...

Thanks to all those who took part and to the Golf Hotel for the use of the room.

If you would like to listen to some of the highlights of the afternoon they can be found on the Rotary Club website at: www.sillothrotary.org.uk.

"The Best Spoken Dialect" was Colin Armstrong of Harrington, who related an amusing tale of being "Skint".

The Most Humorous story in a Cumbrian dialect went to competition regular Dick Gargett with his poem about a trip to the supermarket.

The prize for the Best Newcomer this year went to Isobel Long, who assured

Carnival Committee

A new carnival committee volunteered at a meeting 11th November in the Silloth Café.

A large number of people attended including John Hope and Diane Graham who explained what was involved in organising the event. A total of 13 people have joined the new committee chaired by Mandy Kerr.

We would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who has helped organise the Carnival in previous years a huge thank you to John Hope, Diane Graham and Laurence Marshall who have run the carnival for the past few years.

We are still looking for people to get involved so if you are interested please get in touch at: a.bennacer@btinternet.com.

RNLI Race Night

On Friday 31st October the Silloth & District Fundraising Branch of the RNLI held their popular race night event at a new venue of the Golf Hotel. After a delayed start the racing commenced with everyone cheering on their horse in the hopes that they had placed their bets on the race winner. At one point it looked like the racing may have to be abandoned after a 'technical hitch' but we got back in the saddle and the evening continued. The winning owners of the 2 selling races, Sue and Mel, had a particularly successful evening as well as Chris who won the tricast bet. Although turnout was low those who attended the evening were very generous in their support and our thanks go to all the race sponsors - Associated British Ports Silloth, Jaybees, Carrs Coaches, D A Harrison, Last of the Summer Wine, The Dirty Dozen and Winters Newsagent. Thanks also to the crew for their support and for adding to the entertainment on the evening!!!! Your combined efforts raised the fantastic amount of £730 - Thanks to the Golf Hotel and in particular Owen for his help. Many thanks to you all.

Annual Grand Draw.

The Annual Grand Draw was held at the race night and the winning numbers are:

Wheelchair Around Britain

Report by: Sue Kent

A true hero raising money for the RNLI, Help the Heroes & selling fantastic knitted poppies for the Poppy Appeal visited Silloth on 19 October, 2014.

Mark is an Army veteran who retired from the army due to injury and is going around Britain in his motorbility scooter towing a little trailer which he sleeps in with his two gorgeous and well behaved cats.

He was escorted to Silloth RNLI lifeboat station in style with motorcyclist Tony Jackson and two fellow bikers from the Workington RBL bike club.

Airdy's Musical Walk Raises £5,686

Report by: Shelley Aird

Airdy's Musical Walk was organised within two weeks to coincide with channel 4's Stand Up to Cancer. The cities were holding 45 minutes walks with entertainment along the way, so Sarah Keaveney and myself thought why can't we do that here in Silloth?

And so it progressed, Sarah asked her husband Sean and band mate Terence Marshall of Rigsby if they would accompany the walkers playing acoustic. Sarah said she would provide mulled wine, hot chocolate and pop for the children at Seacote Car park, the turning point of the walk and she would also provide nibbles at the Rugby Club afterwards. We put a plea out for raffle prizes and posters were put around the town, John Cook kindly created us a banner to put up outside the Discovery Centre. Sarah created a Facebook page and before we knew it over a hundred people said they would be attending!

During this time Emma Wise was contacting local businesses to see if they would donate raffle prizes, people from the local community were dropping prizes off at Sarah's house and mine. The generosity of people was amazing. Jimmy Lettice kindly donated signed sports memorabilia for us to auction on the night.

Before we knew it the day was upon us, we arrived at the lifeboat station to find quite a few people, then before we knew it you couldn't see the prom opposite the lifeboat station for people, it was overwhelming. We must have had about 500 people attend. The walk was great fun and seeing so many people take part was humbling. We all enjoyed the refreshment provided served by Lorna Winter and friends at the turning point, we then headed to the Rugby Club where we held the raffles, blind auction and Paul Donald kindly auctioned off the sports memorabilia.

The rugby club was heaving, it was fantastic, we had a small team of helpers selling raffle tickets. The night went so quickly, we did a quick tally and found we had raised £4,100 on the night. Since this we have had more donations come in and are still waiting to collect collection boxes from Stanwix Park.

The total raised so far has reached £5,686.19!

It was absolutely fantastic to see the local community pull together and support such a worthwhile cause. We cannot thank everyone who donated a prize, who took part in the walk, who helped us out on the night enough, what amazing community spirit.

Nails Worth £1,412

A grand total of £1,412 was raised throughout the summer for Silloth Lifeboat and Jigsaw Children's Hospice by Michael Faulkner of Abbey Town and Ryan Corkill of Cleator Moor, a great proportion of which came through the Bowling Clubs of North Cumbria. This was divided 50% to each organisation. The presentation was at Silloth Lifeboat Station on Wednesday 29th October. Michael took up the challenge by way of a bet back in March and has had his nails kept in pristine condition, throughout, by Becky Harrison of Abbey Town. Ryan was recruited to join the team back in June and raised just over £350 himself, with nails painted by his mum.. Throughout the summer, the main theme of the fundraising has been local money for local charities and the end result has proved, yet again, just how generous people can be.

Arthritis Support Group

Fourteen members of the Arthritis Support Group met at Loveday House but unfortunately Catherine Cheetham has had a fall and was having a plaster fitted that day. A new resident of Loveday House, Derek Ford was welcomed to the meeting.

Mary Piele welcomed Mary Watson who showed us how to arrange flowers in various different containers. She kept us entertained with her tales of how she began learning to arrange flowers herself. She had no idea at first but went with a friend to classes and got hooked. She went on to get her City and Guilds Stages 1 and 2. She does demonstrations in lots of places and has represented Cumbria at Chelsea winning nine different medals.

All the time she was talking she made beautiful arrangements which went into the raffle. The lucky winners were Gladys Temple, Glynis Mackie, Derek Ford and Lilian Gordon. Derek intends putting his arrangement on the table for all the residents to benefit from.

The menu for the New Year Lunch was passed around and members asked to remember the £5 deposit will be required at next month's meeting which will be a members own meeting.

Volunteers Please

Soldiers in Silloth toy soldier experience has been open during all the holiday periods this year and attracted plenty of visitors.

Many have come in to see the special Community World War 1 Exhibition with records and memorabilia lent by local families. This will remain open at least till the end of 2014.

Some of the items are from members of our staff, who are all volunteers and include both men and women.

We have welcomed new people to our ranks over the years but others have had to drop out and we are always looking for more people who might spare time to man the counter and talk to visitors. Saturday and Sunday are most difficult to cover as people want to use the weekend for their family activities.

If you or your friends would like to help out we'd be very pleased to have you. The more people available the less they would actually be required to come in, of course.

Until next June we will be open from 11am to 3pm every Saturday and Sunday plus some weekday opening during school holidays from 1pm to 3pm. The rest of the year we open at weekends 10am to 4pm and weekdays 1pm to 4pm. Volunteer sessions are usually three hours in the summer and two out of season.

We require two people to be present for each session.

For more information call Margaret Pickering on 016973 33068.

Letters

Dear Buzz,
For the attention of all Silloth Social Club Ltd members. In reference to the winding up process, we write to keep you informed of how things are progressing. The sale of the remaining property completed in early September. Varying expenses could not be finalised until the sale completed, such as surface water drainage and property insurance, however these are now finalised. We are currently in the process of de-registering from the Financial Conduct Authority, and other Government departments. All creditors are paid in full, however, several debts are still due to be received. Once these are received, we can then look to de-register from other bodies, such as HM Revenue & Customs. Once we are at a point where all financial affairs have been finalised, we can then look to distribute funds to the members of the Club on the membership register as at 31 May 2014. Although we would prefer to do this sooner, rather than later, obviously, we can't give any idea of when this will be. Needless to say, we have incurred the minimum of costs since the club closed earlier this year. Should you wish to discuss any matters or concerns more fully, please do not hesitate in contacting Rob Lauder (President) on 07889 053747, or email sillothsc@gmail.com. Thank you,

Silloth Social Club Ltd

Local Author

You have probably become familiar with the writings of Rick Felix over the years from the annual productions of the Mawbray Entertainers. Unlike the traditional pantomime, these were original and different stories given the comic treatment – stories like 'The Scarlet Pimple' and 'Cleopatra', or 'Geronimo' and 'Hadrian and the Wall'.

Now he has moved on to a more ambitious project, with the release of four connected novels under the series title 'The Desolate Tree'.

Rick said: "For several years I had the basic ideas for a novel slowly taking shape in my head and I had always said to myself that one day I would try to write them down, just to see whether I actually could write something a little longer and more serious than a pantomime script. Once I started however, it soon became clear there was more to the story than would fit into one book. So one book became two, and then three, and finally four. The tale runs from 1989 through to 2011, and is the story of the life of one man, Michael Radcliffe, and how the decisions and mistakes he makes as he stumbles through life bring about profound changes to the lives of his family and the people around him."

The first two books in the series, 'The Desolate Tree' and 'Location and Relocation', are already available as e-books in the Amazon Kindle Store. The two remaining titles will follow soon, 'Action and Reaction' in November and the final volume 'Generation and Regeneration' in December. The books are written under a pen-name, Raphael Sangorski. The real Raphael was my father's cousin, who was killed on the Western Front in 1917, at the age of just nineteen. As the centenary of his death is approaching, I thought it apt to write the story in his name, and to dedicate the book to his memory.

Rick said: It has been exciting to see the books on sale, and to know that people out there are reading them. So far, in addition to the UK and Europe, there are readers of my story in Australia, the USA, Canada, South Africa – and even in Japan, thanks to Amazon's world-wide distribution presence.

One day I hope to be able to have the books printed, to see 'real' books on sale in book-shops, next to 'real' authors. Then, perhaps I will feel like a real author too."

Find out more about the books at: www.thedesolatetree.com or email: raphael.sangorski@gmail.com.

Silloth Dock Entrance Collapses!

Fortunately, this is an article of historical interest and not a news headline!

It was on Sunday 6th

Silloth's Marshall Dock nearest, with the New Dock behind. The right hand side of entrance to Marshall Dock is the area which collapsed.

retained within the dock itself. With the dock gate seal catastrophically broken, the water began rushing out reasonably upright whilst a few heeled over onto their beam ends (on their sides). Considerable damage was caused to those which heeled over, straining and distorting their timber hulls and damaging their rigging and cargo.

On 11th April, five days after the collapse, the Carlisle Journal reported that "little, if any, change had taken place in the condition of the wrecked entrance". This was despite the dock staff making efforts to shift the collapsed south-western gate by using cables and gearing, drawn by a steam tug and two locomotive engines, in order to make a space to get vessels out of the dock. All this effort to date amounted to nothing and the vessels were all still trapped. Tidal seawater would have been entering and leaving the dock during this period, lifting and depositing the stricken ships on the dock bottom as the days went by. Fortunately, the wind had shifted from southerly to easterly, thus reducing the swell and therefore the amount of damage to vessels from what might have previously been expected. As the tides rose, vessels were brought alongside the quays and discharged, then moved out of the way to allow others to do likewise. Regular Silloth services to Liverpool and Belfast and all other ships bound for Silloth were temporarily diverted to Maryport.

On 13th April, the paddle tug 'Arabian', along with three locomotives, managed to disentangle the dock gates, clear away all the debris and so release all the vessels within the dock. As some small crumb of comfort during this crisis, most of the vital hydraulic dock gate machinery had been saved.

By June of that year, temporary repairs and reconstruction to the entrance walls, which was undertaken by the firm that had erected the Tay Bridge in Scotland, had been completed. Shipping services were returned to Silloth, but the dock remained tidal, as it still is today.

The cause for the dock entrance collapse, was thought to have been due to a gradual undermining and weakening of the dock wall over a considerable time, exacerbated by a number of recent winter storms.

In 1882, the North British Railway Company, who owned the dock, commissioned work to excavate and construct a new and larger dock, located directly behind the tidal Marshall Dock - but that's another story!

Marshall Dock entrance, viewed from the pier, in 1867

April 1879, at about 4pm, a short while after a member of the port staff had walked across the dock gates at the entrance to Marshall Dock on his rounds, when he heard what he thought was a low rumbling noise coming from the dock entrance area. Returning to investigate, he found that on the south-western side of the entrance, the dock wall was subsiding and collapsing outwards. There had been no earlier signs of a problem in that area. The dock gate on that south-western side became dislodged and was forced across the face of the other. It was low-water in the Solway at the time, whilst around 24ft of water and about 21 vessels were with a tremendous roar, which was "something long to be remembered". Within a few minutes, all the vessels in the dock, some of them quite large and heavily laden, were left high and dry. Some managed to remain

Holme Low Community Group

In 2010, Jeff Downham from Action with Communities in Cumbria met with members representing both Holme Low and Holme St Cuthbert's Parish Councils to discuss the practicality of producing a joint plan. Questionnaires were completed by local residents and as a result, a joint Parish plan was put together in 2012, reflecting the needs of the two parishes.

A copy of the plan can be downloaded from the Holme Low website at www.holmelow-pc.org.uk.

Holme Low Parish Council are keen to encourage the formation of a new Community Group within Holme Low, who can work together and start coming up with ideas for possible projects within the Parish, to benefit local residents - whether it be organised activities for the elderly, social get togethers, improvements to the Parish or improving access to information and services.

Would you be interested in getting involved? Do you have a few hours to spare and a keen interest in improving your local parish?

Get in touch with the Parish Clerk on 0777 5686857 or Email: parishclerk@holmelow-pc.org.uk. Alternatively you can write to the Parish Clerk at 5 Burnswark Terrace, Solway Street, Silloth, Cumbria, CA7 4EF.

ABC before A&E

As the weather takes a turn for the worse Cumbrians are reminded that if they are feeling ill they should follow these simple steps to ensure they are getting the right help and advice. This is important as it will help our hospitals care for the most vulnerable and the most in need, at a time when hospitals traditionally are busier as a result of the onset of winter.

Play your part and think 'ABC before A&E':
A - Anytime online at NHS Choices
B - Book an appointment with your GP surgery
C - Cumbria Health on Call, out of normal office hours or you can also ask advice from your local pharmacy.

Colin Cox, Director of Public Health at Cumbria County Council, said "It's really important that people know exactly where to go for the right treatment. A&E departments are extremely busy, and people coming to them with a minor injury or illness may have to face long waits, particularly if there are people with major illnesses or complex injuries brought into the department by ambulance. So before considering A&E we would ask that local people really think about the best place to go to for treatment or advice, that could be their GP, talking to a pharmacist or going online." GP surgeries should be the first port of call when you are feeling unwell, having on-going illnesses or need advice. Many practices offer later and longer opening hours and emergency appointments. Out of hours you can contact Cumbria Health on Call on 03000 247247. Or you can go online and visit NHS Choices at www.nhs.uk which provides a wide range of information.

Cardio Tennis

The highly successful Cardio Tennis and Multi Sports sessions will be resuming in the sports hall after the half term break. The sessions run from 7:30pm to 8:30pm and are an action packed hour of tennis drills to music (a bit like circuits) and are open to anyone from the age of 11 to 25. The sessions are free to Silloth Tennis Club members who attend the earlier sessions and cost £2 per session for everyone else. For further information and to book please contact David Wise on 07742547767.

Bowling Club

Report by: Jennifer Bailey

On the night of 4th October the Awards Ceremony at Silloth Bowling club on Eden Street was held under the auspices of Club President Mr David Spence supported by acting Lady President Oriel Hawking and ably assisted by committee member Jim Worsnop and secretary Paul Watson. The trophies, shields and cups were awarded and received, to tumultuous applause, by club members of all ages, for their various achievements throughout the bowling calendar.

After the formalities were concluded there was a sumptuous buffet provided for the delectation of the assembled company by "Sarah's Kitchen" caterers of Church Terrace in Silloth, a fairly recent venture for Mrs Sarah Keaveney and one which will surely flourish if the quality, quantity and variety of dishes supplied on the night is anything to go by. Both meat and vegetarian diets were catered for with some mouthwatering deserts to end the feast.

The evening continued with dancing to live music from "Back to Back" a singing duo who brought a party atmosphere to the proceedings

The Club's bar staff, Grant and Maisie Allen, Julie Wallace (club treasurer) and David Spence, who all work on a voluntary basis giving freely of their time to keep the members' thirsts quenched, were thanked for all their hard work.

Cont'd from page 16 to the club. The victory also protected the clubs 22 month unbeaten home record. The next week Silloth travelled to Millom for what is always a tough test but Silloth battled hard in the wind and rain and secured another great bonus point winning 24-14.

November saw Silloth have another game cancelled, this time visitors Netherhall were unable to raise a team. The following week saw Keswick return to the Jim Brough ground and at stake was a place in the Cumbria Cup Semi Final. Keswick started strong and took an early lead but Silloth, who had the luxury of a full squad for the first time this season, went ahead in the first half and never looked back booking there place in the semifinals courtesy of a 20-10 win.

The following week saw last seasons Cumbria League runners up Egremont try and spoil Silloths long unbeaten home run. The in-form Tigers blew them away with an emphatic 39-7 bonus point win. Last seasons leading try scorer Ricki Sutcliffe lead the way with a hat trick of tries.

As it stands Silloth are third in the league but have two games in hand over their title challengers Workington and Keswick. Those games are against the leagues bottom two teams; Wigton and Netherhall.

If Silloth win both of those they have a healthy lead at the top of the Cumbria league.

Abbeytown MU

Report by: Gladys Temple

Freda Garner welcomed everyone to the October Meeting of Holme Cultram Abbey Mothers Union in the Abbey Cottage Coffee Shop. Anita Norman led the prayers especially mentioning George and Brenda. Maureen Gibson prayed for the members overseas.

Unfortunately Christine Maglinchey was unable to attend so Rev David Tembey stepped in to talk to us about Relationships in life. He read some short stories which were funny but also tragic and this led on to us questioning our relationship with God and his unconditional love to us and us thinking about how he reveals his love to us personally. David read another of his stories and then gave us a quiz on how well we listen to the bible stories when at Church. We hear the basic stories but how much background do we take in. Each table was given paper and a pen to write down the answers and after much discussion Anita, Judith, Freda and Gladys ended with most points.

Noeline Foster thanked

David for a very thought provoking but enjoyable evening after stepping in at such short notice.

Refreshments were served by Margaret Hocking, Maureen Gibson and Eileen Todhunter. Apologies were received from Branch Leader Brenda Sim, Mary Mattinson, Lynne Tembey and speaker Christine Maglinchey and Joan Winter read the record of the September Meeting.

The concert by Dalston Male Voice Choir held in the Abbey had been well attended and enjoyed by all.

Bowness and Aikton MU's have been invited to the November Meeting so extra food was requested. The 2015 programme is nearly ready and the diaries will be available at the next meeting.

The preparations for the Christmas Market to be held on 5-6th December are well under way.

The Speakers at the next meeting on Mon 24th November at 7:30pm will be Rev. J Falkner and Mrs S. Falkner when anyone interested would be made welcome.

Parking Problems

Silloth-on-Solway Town Council have received a number of complaints recently from local residents, in relation to motorists parking in the town, and the following is information about parking in the vicinity of dropped curbs and the law: Parking on/next to dropped kerbs (Contravention Code 27).

There are two types of dropped kerbs - those for pedestrians/wheelchairs/pushchairs and those outside driveways allowing easy access to the residents of individual houses. Dropped kerbs include pavements that have been lowered to the level of the road.

The law basically says that you should not obstruct dropped kerbs unless you are obstructing a dropped kerb outside a house with the permission of the owner. Of course, obstructing any dropped kerb will cause inconvenience either to the owner of the property who cannot obtain access or egress from their property, or in respect of pedestrian dropped kerbs you can even cause danger to pedestrians, particularly the elderly, disabled and mothers with prams. The legislation which allows local authorities to issue Penalty Charge Notices to vehicles parked across kerbs is the Traffic Management Act 2004 and the London Local Authorities and Transport Act 2003. Parking across certain dropped kerbs is also contrary to Highway Code rule 243 which states:

- Do not stop or park:
 - * Where the kerb has been lowered to help wheelchair users and powered mobility vehicles;
 - * In front of an entrance to a property. This offence applies to all motorists, including
 - * Blue Badge holders
 - * Motorcyclists
 - * Permit holders

Legislation allows councils to issue a Penalty Charge Notice where a vehicle has parked obstructing a dropped kerb.

Pedestrian/wheelchair/pushchair dropped kerbs
You cannot park adjacent to a pedestrian/wheelchair/pushchair dropped kerb irrespective of whether yellow lines are present or not and action can be taken against any vehicle parked adjacent to them.

- By parking in this manner you:
- * Make it difficult for people with wheelchairs and pushchairs
 - * Making crossing the road difficult for the elderly and disabled
 - * Obstruct the view of motorists turning at junctions

Buzzing Bee by Bridget Irwin from Silloth Primary School

In Silloth, we are blessed with wide streets and ample free parking but despite this some motorists still feel the need to park on corners and next to dropped kerbs. Some motorists have even been seen parked on the pavement outside one particular food store. There needs to be more consideration, particularly where there are dropped kerbs, before there is a serious accident. Surely the safety of pedestrians and other motorists is far more important than having to walk a few extra yards to get to the shops.

Tigers Power to Victory

Lee Tinkler manages to avoid the pack (just) to score an exciting try

Silloth travelled with a depleted team to Workington Zebras for their toughest test so far this season with eight players unavailable. Although leading the game until the dying minutes a well drilled Workington side eventually went ahead and nicked it 27-25 in what was quoted as one of the best games played at the Ellis Sports Ground in a long time!

Silloth took more positives from the game than negatives and have worked extra hard on the training ground. October started with Silloth's game against local rivals Wigton being cancelled as Wigton were unable to raise a team, so the following week they made the trip to Carlisle to take on Creighton coming away with an outstanding 40-17 bonus point win. The team was boosted by new signing Luke Johnson marking his debut by collecting the Man of the Match award.

Up next was Keswick who are tipped by most outside the town League and Cup favourites. A fired up Silloth side lead the game from start to finish and secured a bonus point in what Coach Mark Orchard describes as the teams best performance since his return

Eve at Wimbledon

Silloth Tennis Club's Eve Fisher had a fantastic time as she got the chance to experience what it would be like to be a professional Tennis player at the national road to Wimbledon championships.

Having reached the county final eve was invited to take part in the last day training session held by Tim Henman and Dan Bloxham (the guy who leads the players out onto centre court for the finals) and also watch the main finals of the event.

Watched by her personal level 1 coach Emily Wise, Eve spent the best part of two hours being put through her paces, regularly hitting balls with Tim and even running around court 1 as part of the warm up.

After a day which also entailed a free tour of the grounds, media centre and museum eve left the venue full of ambition to win the county final in 2015 and come back again for the main event.
