

Culterham Hall, Mawbray

The village hall in Mawbray once again excelled itself at Christmas when the travelling theatre group Blaize put on their interpretation of a classical Christmas Show.

Thank goodness I booked my tickets as these shows keep getting more popular.

For a very small community the people of Mawbray certainly know how to make the best use of Culterham Hall.

Volunteer organiser Steve Weedall always manages to find something different at every show.

The next show is on March 22nd with an appearance by the All Star Medicine Show with their wild west boogie woogie entertainment – no, I don't know what that means either – but I do know it will be excellent value for money at only £3.50 and £2 for concessions.

To book, contact Steve on 01900 881499.

Silloth Beer Festival 2003

After two very successful years the Silloth Beer Festival is now at the planning stage for the 2003 event.

If you want to see the beer festival continue – your help is required. The people who have done all the hard work for the past two years need more help to take this event forward. New ideas are also being welcomed.

This is your chance to get involved in this exciting project, the more people who get involved, the easier it will be for everyone.

Come along to a public meeting in The Golf Hotel on Tuesday 4th February at 7pm.

This is your chance to have your say, there is no point moaning later that opportunities have been missed, turn up at this meeting and make your point – get involved, your input is appreciated. All welcome.
