Coffee Morning Success

On 10th April Christ Church held their Easter Saturday coffee morning. Alongside the coffee and cakes, there were several stalls which had books, crafts and home made foods on offer. There were several competitions for the children from the Youth Clubs.

Seven-Ups were Katie Smith and Ben Gribbon. The Easter Card competition for the older young people was Stacey Fearon. The standard in the Decorated Eggs competition was so good that two prizes were awarded, the first being awarded to Daniel Ware and second prize going to Ryan Bervoets.

There were two Easter bonnet for several weeks and their competition was won by Cathy Longcake. Pictured with the Bulldogs is Rev. Peter Streatfeild, the curate working with the churches of the Solway competitions, and the entrants are pictured above/below. The competition for entries on the day itself attracted two prizes, the first going to Maisie Smith and the second to Kelly Lightfoot. The Bulldogs group had been making bonnets on Wednesday evenings

Plain Team, and his wife Elaine. They kindly agreed to judge all the competitions and our thanks go to them for the careful thought they put into their task.

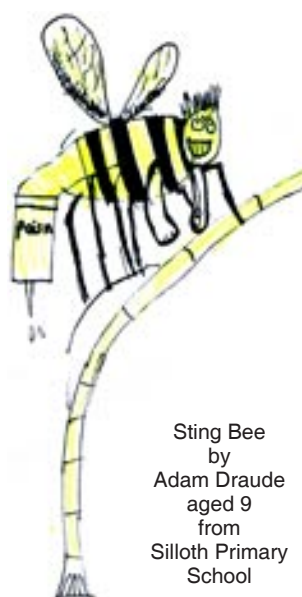

Many thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make the day and the competitions such a success.
