Lots of happy beer drinkers were well served by the army of volunteers

Well done to everybody for making this years festival a great one, with over 3,500 people enjoying a bumper feast of music and real ale.

The atmosphere was something special. Steve Hart, on behalf of the organising committee says he really doesn't know how they will be able to improve on this years festival. He sends a big thank you to all the sponsors and all the volunteers who's hard-work made this year's event possible.
