

Celebrating 25 years of SPAR in Silloth

SPAR in Silloth

SPAR re-opens at 10am on Friday 18th March

Following a significant investment, Stan and Judith Foster will re-open their SPAR store in Solway Street, Silloth on Friday 18th March at 10am.

ATM cash machine will be installed shortly.

SPAR owner Stan Foster, said: "Having owned and operated SPAR Silloth for 25 years, Judith and I are delighted to welcome old and new customers back to our store. Along with our staff, we aim to offer the best in standards and service to the people of Silloth and the surrounding area".

In response to local demand the new store is now larger with enlarged fresh food ranges, chilled beer and wine and a modern, pleasant shopping environment.

In addition to an extensive grocery range, the store continues to supply a full range of fresh foods, including fresh meat, delicatessen range, chilled fruit and vegetables, and the usual salad bar selection.

As before there is a full range of news & magazines, video and DVD rentals, and an
