

Hosanna Rock at Holme St. Cuthbert

The children of Holme St. Cuthbert school celebrated Christmas together at Holme St. Cuthbert church with a wonderful production of 'Hosanna Rock'.

This was a modern musical following the story of the nativity. As you would guess from the title, the music was lively and songs ranged from lullaby to rock.

The children's singing was brilliant and great entertainment for the parents and friends who filled the church. The young soloists were especially impressive, showing huge confidence and poise as they sang their parts.

The infant children, each one dressed as a child from a different country, looked beautiful. They brought the house down and caused a few tears with their song 'Hold your banners high'.

Everyone was very proud of the children and felt it was a lovely way to start off the Christmas celebrations.

Silloth Music & Beer Festival 2008

The main band to open the Festival on Thursday 4th September is the world famous "The Searchers".

They have agreed to play on Silloth Green at the start of their next tour, from Silloth their next stop is Norway.

The Searchers string of Number One hits started with Sweets For My Sweet in the summer of 1963, quickly followed by Sugar & Spice and Needles & Pins. Other well known tracks include Love Potion Number Nine, Don't Throw Your Love Away and Someday We're Gonna Love Again.

Not many bands from this era have any original performers, but the remaining Searchers, John McNally and Frank Allen along with Spencer James and Eddie Rothe are thankfully in the rudest of health and eager to continue their life of constant touring. Have guitars (and drums), will travel is their motto.

Finding their standard set a trifle too constricting and perhaps even a little unsatisfying to their hard core fans who have always known there is more to their favourite group than merely a bunch of hit records, they have over the last decade perfected a two-part concert consisting of their legendary hits, 'B' sides, favourite album tracks and a whole bunch of terrific new material they have collected along the way. Combined with anecdotes and reminiscences delivered in an intimate and personal way that is unique to the Searchers these shows have proved to be a triumph.

Tickets will go on sale in the Spring - be there.
