

Stag-Do at Brunton Park

They were lucky enough to meet their man-of-the-match, Joe Garner at full time.

Following his recent letter in the December issue John Slack (jnr) is delighted so many of his friends took up his invitation to go to his stag-do.

They sponsored the match-ball at the Carlisle United v Gillingham game and had such a fantastic day! They all arrived at Brunton Park at 12 o'clock, where it was straight to the bar in the sponsors lounge. After a couple of pints they were then taken on a tour of Brunton Park, getting to see what goes on behind the scenes on a match day (this was a truly unforgettable experience John will treasure forever).

Then they all went back to Foxy's Restaurant where they were served a beautiful meal. At kick-off time they took their seats in the Executive Box and were then treated to a magnificent ninety minutes of football with the "Blues Army" running out 2-0 winners. Some of John's friends were lucky enough to sit with a couple of injured stars from the first team throughout the match. After the final whistle it was back to the bar for more drink and a good banter.

John would like to thank all at Carlisle United Football Club for the fantastic hospitality he and his friends received. He had the perfect day, a three point win and Reggie even bought him a pint.

Silloth Tennis Club

Greg Ramsay spent much of the Christmas holidays continuing his fine tennis form of the summer.

First off was an under ten event at Chatsworth Tennis Club in Carlisle. Despite being only eight and the youngest player there he powered through the field to take the title with a battling final victory over another Sillothian: Reece Blake.

His second tournament success was for the whole of the County and another set of gutsy performances gave him the winners medal and the chance to represent Cumbria at the regional event in Edinburgh at the end of January.

We wish him well. Another player in good form was Emily Wise who also played some good tennis as she made the final of another event held at Chatsworth.

Also, in a series of mini tennis events held at Silloth and Maryport another bunch of young club members showed that they too are beginning to show similar skill levels.

Good performers included: Shona Little: Semi finalist at Maryport in first event.

Mary Hollick: Finalist at Silloth in first event. Liam Lightfoot: Semi finalist at Silloth and Maryport in first events. Macy Baker: Finalist. Anna Middleton: Winner.
