On the Waterfront

Report by: Tommy Legs

March proved to be a reasonable month with seven vessels visiting the port.

The VICTRESS was first with fertilizer from Ijmuiden followed by the BEN ELLAN with wheat from Liverpool. The SCOUT MARIN then brought a small cargo of wheat from Nantes in France and the BEN VARREY brought another cargo of wheat from Liverpool.

The Irish ship the ARKLOW RIVER then brought in 4,150 tonnes of fertilizer from Holland, this being the largest cargo ever discharged at Silloth.

The ARTICA HAV then arrived with wheat from Germany and finally the BEN MAYE brought wheat from Liverpool.
