Causewayhead WI

Report by: Patricia Froggatt

‘What the Judge is Looking For’

New and old members of Causewayhead W.I., meeting in Silloth, were welcomed to the July meeting by President, Pat Bell.

The evening commenced with General Business and the reading of the Minutes from the previous meeting by Secretary Jean Vorley. These were approved and signed. The sale of plants at the Vintage Rally raised £71, which would be used to provide more plants for the garden situated outside the Discovery Centre.

Because of the atrocious weather at the Vintage Rally, the WI would be having a plant stall at the Food Fare on the weekend of the 16th/17th August.

An invitation had been received for ten members to attend Crofton WI in September. Those taking part in the visit to the Post Office Sorting Office in Carlisle in September would depart at 5.30pm. Soup and a Roll would be provided back at the Hall on their return. Details in the County Newsletter were read out to the meeting.

The President then welcomed our guests for the evening: Eileen Wilson and her colleague

Thelma. Thelma began by explaining what the Judges are looking for when they are judging Scones and Victoria Sponges. The shape, texture, and appearance of both are all given points. She also gave tips on how best to bake, remove from the tins, and to present and display for show purposes. Most members found this information extremely helpful.

Eileen concentrated on Jam and Marmalade making, explaining which jars are the best and how to present them for competition purposes. Brand lids must never be used. She also gave helpful information of the making of the Jam and Marmalade and, in the case of Marmalade, the even spread of peel is essential.

All members were thoroughly engrossed in the demonstration and explanations given. A vote of thanks was given by Jean Graham.

The evening closed with a Social half hour provided by J. Worsnop and P. Froggatt.

September Meeting (10th September), would those Members not visiting the Post Office Sorting Office note that there will be a Beetle Drive at Trinity Methodist Church Schoolroom at the usual time.

Hostesses for the evening were: M. Crawford, M. Lomas and E. Telford.

Prize Winners on the evening were:
Raffle: J. Wilkinson and A. Dunbar
Grocery Parcel: M. Crawford, G. Hunter, and J. Beeby
Victoria Sponge: P. Bell and J. Graham
Flower: A. Harrison and A. Dunbar
