Clean It Up

Allerdale Borough Council is supporting the ‘Clean it up’ campaign by stepping up its checks on illegal carriers of waste.

A joint initiative, supported by Allerdale Borough Council, The Environment Agency and the Police, to ‘stop and search’ vehicles in the Allerdale area will be stepped up over the next few months to ensure that trade waste from businesses is being transported by those with a Waste Carriers Licence.

Businesses and individuals are being advised to ensure they are aware of their legal ‘duty of care’ for the trade waste they produce. Margaret Heyes, Allerdale Borough Council’s Local Environmental Quality Officer, said: “Last year fly tipping cost the tax payer £57,522. Part of the problem is due to some businesses not disposing of their waste legally and effectively. It is a major concern to the authority where illegally handled trade waste will end up, as well as the costs to our communities in dealing with the problem. “By law businesses need to take all reasonable steps to keep waste secure and ensure it is transported and disposed of legally. The Council recognises that many businesses and tradesmen may misunderstand or neglect their legal responsibilities for waste, so our advice to businesses is to:

- Know your waste management ‘duty of care’
- Check if you are legally carrying waste
- Ensure you have a ‘waste carriers licence’ if you carry waste.
- Store waste securely to prevent escape or scavenging
- Double-check that person(s) taking your waste away is an ‘authorised carrier’
- Complete ‘waste transfer notices’ for all transfers and keep copies for inspection.”

Failure to comply with the legislation may result in a Fixed Penalty Notice or court proceedings.

The ‘Clean it up’ campaign was launched in April 2008, supported by Allerdale Borough Council, the Civic Trust and the Times and Star and contributes to the ‘big tidy up’ a national campaign which is to be launched by ENCAMS

On the Waterfront

Report by: Tommy Legs

July was surprisingly busy with nine vessels visiting the port, however this included the dredger the CHERRY SAND who spent ten days dredging the inner harbour and the FURNESS ABBEY who later finalized the operation.

The first cargo ship was the BALTICA HAV with wheat from Vierow followed by the VALIANT with fertilizer from Ijmuiden.

The PUR NAVOLOK arrived with fertilizer from Sfax in North Africa and the BEN ELLAN brought wheat from Liverpool.

The EILSUM then brought fertilizer from Klaipeda, the VICTRESS brought fertilizer from Ghent and finally the ARTICA HAV brought wheat from Rostock.

(Keep Britain Tidy Group) on 1 September 2008. This campaign will be the first national clean up campaign for eight years.
